

Observed Pelvic Examination

Student _____

Date _____

Preceptor _____

Site _____

PRE-PROCEDURE

	Yes	No	NA
1. Student introduces themselves
2. Student washes hands
3. Student uses appropriate sterile approach, when applicable
4. Student is attentive to patient comfort and to preserve modesty, as applicable.

PROCEDURES

	Yes	No	NA
1. Inspection of mons, labia, intoitis, anus, gluteal fold with good light
2. Palpation of inguinal nodes and any abnormalities
3. Insertion of speculum: a) Warming the speculum b) Telling the patient c) Using small amount of lubrication or water
4. Visualization of vagina and cervix
5. Obtain PAP smear, as indicated
6. Obtain wet mount with pH, whiff test, KOH and saline and/or obtain cultures, as indicated
7. Perform bimanual exam a) Correctly identify size, shape, position of uterus (or recognize they cannot) b) Palpate for adnexal masses c) Palpate vaginal walls and cul de sac
8. Allow patient to clean up and dress in private
9. Explain exam results
10. Reassure patient that exam is normal, if it is. If abnormalities are found, explain what is abnormal and what will be done to evaluate further and/or treat the abnormality (may be done during or after the exam)
Interpersonal Skills
11. A cknowledge patient, introduces self, tells patient d uration of procedure, e xplains procedure, t hanks patient (AIDET)
12. Listens adequately and communicates effectively in a routine clinical setting
13. Gives patient a chance to talk and ask questions
14. Demonstrates sensitivity and responsiveness to patient

Comments _____

Signature of Preceptor _____

Signature of Student _____
